I am proud of: I'm most proud of the various ways I've contributed to the experience of my peers, that wouldn't be possible if they hadn't elected me as their President. It has been a pleasure serving each and every one of them.

Awards received: Forget about the awards. What has made me feel the best this year are the smiles and the gratitude I've received from so many seniors.

Andrea Gorton - Do your homework.

Bao Yang - Don't procrastinate!

Danielle Ellison - To all the underclassmen, make sure you take care of business, especially if your'e an athlete. Don't take school for granted.

Jennifer Barnes - Eat lots of ice cream

Lena Olson - Don't slack off too much senior year

Elizabeth Fei - Life happens, so just deal with it. Learn from the past and hope for the future, but live for right now.

Melissa Yu - fight for what you want, dont let anyone intimidate you because Central is full of opportunities, so utilize them.

Siri Garnaa - try harder

Pavel McGlave - Whatever

Oluyeu Olge - get all your credits now so you dont have any classes your senior year

Her Sombath - enjoy your time with your friends while it lasts

Jay Schoerberg - Dont go to school to get somewhere else in life, go to learn something new

Katie Falksen - Take a deep breath...you will get through it if you just stay focused

Megan Telzrow - Taking less classes only makes you slack off more. If your going to have an early release, take some college classes?

Abby Wenck - Dont think your invincible, p[lay your cards with caution and try to have as much fun as possible

Caitlin Espersen - Turn, smile, shift and repeat

Tiffini Vain - always be on top of things. Dont let anyone steal your dreams

Last Words of Wisdom

Ashley Ellis-Milan - Live it up Baby...

Erica Thomas - Pass all your classes in 9th and 10th grade.

Anna Bartholomay - Do college stuff on time. Don't let doors close. You have so many options, so do your research.

Kelsey McDonough - Don't leave college stuff 'til the last minute, it'll kick your butt. Don't waste your passing time.

Jessica Mapel - Don't worry about being with someone, you'll have the rest of your life for that. Now, you only have a few years left for school.

John Allen - A good teacher's your friend for some of the most difficult times. and... GROW UP!

Julia Goplen - Do good, think positive, and make your sneior year a memorable one!

Cynthia Lee - Hmm... This is a hard one. Just kidding. Work hard. Stay tuned, and don't forget to respect yourself while in the midst of the typical High School Drama.

Emma Barker - Don't do anything that could be re-told starting with "So, you know what's not a good idea?..."

Justin Hardy - Ask questions if you have any, don't just go along with the flow

Arne Bostrom - Enjoy your time at Central. Be bold.

Nathan Giles - In terms of getting homework done and giong to college: "Do or do not, there is no try."

Phil Varela - Dont think that senior year goes by slowly...it goes by very quickly

Caitlyn Wright - DO your english journals! When you have a crush on someone, just dont speak to them at all...FOOT—>MOUTH

Jan Jacobson - have fun

Michael Ducker - Make time for your self, have fun, and seriously do your homework

Kshia Thao - There's no rush in growing, learn from yesterday, dream for tomorrow, live for today

Tom Garretson - Get your work done early so you can party hard when you are near the end of the year

King Yang - Dont be stuck up, dont be shady, tlak to people, make friends, be confident, dont fail or you will be working for me?

Rebecca Mackenzie - live like a rhinestone cowboy

Chanettia Nelson - Take central for what its worth. Central has alot to offer and you have the oppertunity to experiece it

Dane Nelson - Don't take highschool so serious, it does not count for much

Kor Xiong - Study hard and stay in school because your senior year will be hard

Eliza Swanson - Have fun! the -

Frank Hamel - Dont close doors, keep your options open. You dont have to know what your going to do with your life,

Central's "Top" Seniors

Anna Rice

Upcoming plans for next school year & Major: I will be attending Harvard college, and my major is undecided. (Liberal Arts). Organizations/ sports involved with in Central: Math team, Band, orchestra, Chamber Orchestra, Badminton, Economics challenge team.

How has attending Central affected your academic performance? I have been challenged in various academic fields, and have had opportunities to explore different subjects. Central also has a strong music program, which helped make my experience enjoyable and fulfilling. Were there any times where you wanted to give up? Sometimes all the work I had to do seemed overwhelming, but everyone was supportive of me, and everything has turned out well.

Anna Santo

What are your plans for next year & major: Oberlin College in Ohio. Major: Environmental Science Studies; spanish.

What organization/sports have you been involved in within the school? National Honor Society, Student Council, Swimming & Diving, Drama Board, Lots of Musical & Plays.

How has attending Central affected your academic performances? Central has nurtured me for four wonderful years. Academically it has definitely prepared me for college.

Were there any times where you wanted to give up? Even though i'm really close to graduating, last week when Mr. Cherin gave us a project I seriously considered succumbing to my desire to give up and drop out.

Betsy Ohrn

Upcoming plans for next school year; major: I am going to Rice University in Houston, Texas. I'm going to wear lots of cowboy boots and study all the social sciences.

Organization/sports involved with at Central: Tennis Team (captain), Alpine Ski Team (captain), Girls Golf Team, Student Council, NHS (Book Club Head), Central Drama

How has attending Central affected your academic performance? Central has been both distracting and inspiring - both the laziness and incredible energy have rubbed off at times. But, in the end, I can't imagine graduating from anywhere else and I appreciate all of the amazing people I've met here.

Were there any times when you wanted to give up? I pretty much wanted to give up almost every day and abandon my academics to just watch TV but, for the most part, I didn't.

Damon Alexander

Upcoming plans for next school year; major: I intend to major in applied math, engineering, and physics at the University of Wisconsin-Madison

Organization/ Sports involved with in Central: I was the alpine ski team captain this year, and was on that team as well as cross-country running and tennis for the past 4 years. Also, I have been on the Math Team, Science Olympiad team, Economics Challenge Team, and NHS website committee head.

How has attending Central affected your academic performance: The IB curriculum has helped me challenge myself to my full ability and has hopefully prepared me for college.

Were there any times where you wanted to give up: I was going to go pro at skiing until I had to up my training to finish my full IB diploma

Danny Maruyama

Upcoming plans for next school year; major: Next year, I will attend the University of California Berkely where I plan on majoring in math.

Organizations/ Sports involved with in Central: NHS, Golf, Cross Country

How has attending Central affected your academic performance: It has taught me the importance of time management.

Were there any times where you wanted to give up: "Our greatest glory is not in never failing, but in rising each and every time we fail." -Confucious

Melissa Yu

Upcoming plans for next school year; major: Washington University in St. Louis. Undecided major. Maybe biochemistry and psychology.

Organizations/sports involved in at Central: Musicals, badminton, National Honor Society, Senior Class Council

How has attending Central affected your academic performance? It has broadened my horizons by challenging me academically as well as challenging my character. Central also has a plethora of resources and opportunities that have helped me greatly.

Where there any times when you wanted to give up? Of course, but the key is to keep on trying. It may sound trite, but as the senior quote goes, "Our greatest glory is not in never failing, but in rising each and every time we fail." Cheesy, yes, but oh so true.

Sara Kemper

Upcoming plans for next school year; major: Vassar College in Poughkeepsie, NY. "Broad range interest."

Organizations/sports involved in at Central: Varsity soccer (3 years), co-editor in chief of Verbal Promiscuity, Central Drama Pride and Prejudice

How has attending Central affected your academic performance? So many intelligent people, motivating to be pushed by your peers and do well. I really enjoyed it and met a lot of fun, interesting people.

Where there any times when you wanted to give up? Yes. I felt like I just couldn't get my work done. I was so busy, but I managed to pull through.

Zindzi McCormick

Upcoming plans for next school year; major: I'm going to Brown University in Providence, RI. Undecided Major ... something science/math related.

Organizations/sports involved with at Central: National Honor Society, Drama Board, Swimming, Student Council

How has attending Central affected your academic performance? Attending Central has taught me the value and necessity of independence. And of good friends.

Were there any times when you wanted to give up? I think that to succeed at Central you can't let giving up cross your mind ... or at least not for too long.

Aaron Vieth

Upcoming plans for next school year; major: I'm attending the University of Wisconsin in Madison and will major in math. Organizations/sports were you involved with at Central?: Math Team, Science Olympiad, Model UN

How has attending Central affected your academic performance? I think the diversity at Central has given me a more well-rounded academic experience.

Were there any times when you wanted to give up?: Maybe half-way through sophomore year, but then I thought about it and decided giving up wasn't worth it.

Sarah Johnson - Swim team, softball, and Nachos St. Paul.

Fushcia-Ann Hoover - The people I'm leaving behind and knowing where I stand in school. I'll have to start all over in all aspects of school. It's scary (but also exciting!)

Tou Ger Pha - I think the Tradition. As the years goes by, we lose move and move tradition thata do happens at Central.

Annmarie Manuntag - The students, teachers, and the events.

Christopher Knapp - The bureaueracy and the tight budgets, as well as the tedium, and Choir times.

Elizabeth Weisert - Playing hangman during 2nd hour, and annoying Golly G by stealing his comfy chair.

David Mamer - The substitutes, From Mr. Free to Ms. D to Sheletor to the King of them all, Mr. Wiljamma. I never did get to see his magic show.

Hannah Weyh - Italian Dunkers and my friends : (

William Hernandez - Nothiong.

Endia Riley - NOTHING! j/k I will miss my friends and the security of being a kid.

Julie Hoye - tall girls, friends that don't take themselves too seriously and have a great sense of humor. Hilarious.

Zindzi McCormick - I'll miss how much control you have over your experievce at Central and the IB Advisroy and DDR.

Linesha Williams - That I'm no longer able to grace my prescence to the central high school students.

Kelsey Baxter - My friends, some of the teachers.

Sarah Donohue - Italian dunkers and my friends. ; (

Lauren Colwell - The IB advisory, Drama Board productions, Band and Orchestra.

Fong Vang - Prom.

Alex Grabko - How ridiculous it is.

Dustin Schroeder - Gettin up early, studying for test, homework, and constantly being told what to do.

Mary Xiong - The cramp halls of warmth and sweat, the teachers, and the quality time of talking with friends during class, passing time, and lunch.

Kristen Leach - I will miss the friends, the band, the stage, the closeness of everyone, and Geno's shirts.

Elizabeth Scott - The teachers and some students.

Meagan Smetana - The people I didn't really get to know.

Irene Toro-Martinez - People, crowd hallways, bad food, cold pool. EVERYTHING

Brendan Ballou-Kelly - Falling asleep on class. Naps in school are so rest-ful, like you've gotten a good nights sleep.

Shannon Abbott - Ummmm?.... The people.... cool teachers and definitely NOT the crowd halls.

Meg Krueger - The swim team.

Claire O'Neil - I will definitely miss my lunch table.

Alaina Lancette - Lunch table and Gloria.

Ciara Crowe - The front stairs.

Jaqueline Rivera - Seeing everyone at once.
